CONGRESSIONAL HAPPENINGS IN WASHINGTON

By CLARENCE J. BROWN
Member of Congress

An effort to stem a growing tide of Congressional and public criticism over the slowness which our armed forces are being demobilized, the War Department arranged for General George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff of the Army, to address Members of the House and Senate last Thursday morning. General Marshall devoted considerable time to explaining the difficulties of rapid demobilization and to assure the legislators discharges would be granted as quickly as possible under the Army point system. His most important statement was the promise the point quota required for discharge will be reduced from 80 to 70 by October 1st, and to 60 points by November 1st. He also gave the pledge all soldiers with two or more years of service will be discharged by midwinter. The demobilization plan outlined by General Marshall is far broader than the one given to the Military Affairs Committees of the House and Senate by War Department spokesmen a few days earlier.

The day before General Marshall announced the War Department's latest demobilization plan to the Congress, the House Republican Steering Committee went on record as demanding the prompt discharge from the armed forces of all men with two or more years of service, and of all fathers, making application therefore. While numerous bills have been introduced in the Congress, by both Democrats and Republicans, to speed up demobilization, and conscription, and proclaim the end of the war emergency, thus far the Truman Administration, which has a heavy majority in both House and Senate, has been able to block action on any of these measures. However, Congressional dissatisfaction with Army and Navy demobilization efforts up to date is credited with bringing about the announcement of the early reduction of points required for discharge from the Army; while the Navy is expected, within the near future, to make a further reduction in its point requirements for discharge.

In order to partially meet objections to the draft, National Selective Service Headquarters last week ordered the deferment, upon application, of all young men in high school until graduation, or until their twentieth birthday, which ever comes first, and the deferment of college students until the end of the semester. Under the Constitution Congress and Congress alone, has the duty and responsibility of fixing the size of our Army and Navy, and raising and maintaining our armed forces. Within the next week or ten days the House will have before it a bill establishing the size, type and character of our peacetime Navy. Similar legislation for the Army will probably not be considered for several months to come, or until after oyster needs can be better ascertained. However, it seems likely the War Department's plan for a two and one-half million postwar Army will be materially scaled down, and our peacetime armed forces made up of volunteers. The House last week passed a Recruitment Bill designed to make volunteer service in the Army attractive.

One of the severest indictments yet made against the Army's waste of medical power was made before the Military Affairs Committee of the Senate last week by a Colonel from the Surgeon General's Office, who had been assigned to the Committee to investigate the use of medical officers in the Army. He charged there had been great waste of medical men in the armed forces, and that the average Army doctor was carrying but ten percent of the case-load, or medical work, of the average civilian doctor. During the war 130,000,000 civilians have had approximately 80,000 medical doctors available to care for their needs. The Army has had 47,000 medical officers to serve slightly more than eight million men, and the Navy 13,000 medics for three and one-half million men. According to the investigator's report, troops in combat often received insufficient medical attention, while troops in training or in quiet sectors, had more medical officers than needed. Yet, despite the antiquated system, the Medical Corps of the Army and Navy rendered outstanding service in saving the lives of American fighting men. However, now that the war is over, unused doctors should be returned to civilian life, for a critical shortage of doctors exists on the home front. The War Department promises 17,000 doctors will be discharged by December 31st, and a total of 30,000 by July 1st, next. The Navy expects to release 8,000 tons within the next few months. The nation goes back on Standard Time Sunday, September 30th, as a result of Congress repealing the War Time Statute. In both World War I and World War II clocks were advanced by congressional enactment, in an effort to save daylight. Now for the second time, Congress admits the futility of such an effort. Those in government who clamored the loudest for the original time change, in the early days of the war, now seemingly agree no benefit was derived therefrom. On the other hand there is much evidence that "fooling with the clocks" created much confusion and worked great hardship on many citizens, especially the farmers and the school children of the nation.

Ohio's Junior Senator, Harold H. Burton of Cleveland, has been appointed by President Truman as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States—first Republican named to that court in more than fifteen years. Senator Burton is expected to take his seat on the Supreme Court the first of October. He is considered an able lawyer and a man of courage and judicial temperament.

14 Boys and 2 Girls Get Stern Reprimand In Juvenile Court

Fourteen boys and two girls were called before Juvenile court last Saturday morning to explain their part in the destruction of a garden crop as well as a melon patch belonging to Rev. W. P. Chase. At least three times the garden had been visited and the green melons pulled and scattered over the streets and lawns around town.

Complaint was made following more damage last week and deputies from the Sheriff's office were asked to give protection. They uncovered the list when one or more gave the names of all who participated.

The boys and girls were given a reprimand and given to understand the idea of law and order had to be maintained.

A collection was taken among those connected with the affair and damage paid for the loss of the crops.

HARVEST CROPS
German prisoners of war are being used on a number of Greene County farms to harvest potatoes and cut corn. The men are housed at the prison camp near Wilmington, which is under army supervision. Prevailing wage rates are paid the men who provide their noonday meal.

Transportation to and from the camp each day must be furnished by the employer. A guard is assigned to each ten men while away from camp.

TEST TRIPLE STRENGTH SUPERPHOSPHATE
A car containing eighteen and one half tons of calcium metaphosphate arrived from the Tennessee Valley Authority, Sheffield, Alabama, last week for demonstration purposes on Greene County farms. The material is secured through the T. V. A., and Ohio Agricultural Extension Service to test on various farm crops the value of triple strength superphosphate. The fertilizer will be used on legume seedings and to treat permanent pasture.

Farmers cooperating in making the tests are: Arthur Bahns, New Jasper Twp.; David C. Bradfute, Cedarville Twp.; H. W. Eavey Xenia Twp.; Lester McDorman, Ross Twp.; C. R. Meredith, Miami Twp.; and Wm. Wilkerson, Bath Twp.

DAIRY TESTERS SCHOOL
A special short course to train testers for dairy herd improvement association and for dairy service units will be given at Ohio State University October 15 to 27. There is a need for testers at the present time, those completing the short course are guaranteed a job.

FALL GARDEN JOBS
Garden soils are usually planted every year to two or three successive crops, and the supply of plant food as well as the organic matter in the soil is quickly reduced. Such severe reduction in soil fertility will gradually reduce yields. The reduction of organic matter supply will cause poorer drainage and consequent damage from wet weather. Likewise plant diseases will accumulate if diseased plants are not removed.

The following garden program which include the following jobs will help greatly in making the 1946 garden a good one.

Remove and burn all plant residues which may harbor diseases and insects. Sow rye as a cover crop as crops are harvested or between rows of late crops.

Apply a complete fertilizer such as 4-12-4 or similar analysis when the rye is sowed to encourage a heavy growth.

The rye should be sowed as early as possible because early sowing results in more root development and a greater increase in the organic matter supply. When the soil is kept in good condition and diseases are held in check by removing plant residues, the stage is set for a good garden next year.

LIVESTOCK PRICES
Prices of lambs and hogs and well finished cattle are expected livestock market interests to remain at or near present levels through the first half of 1946. Larger receipts of lower grade cattle and decreased demand from the army for canned beef are expected to cause prices for the grade to decline more than seasonal average.

WILD GARLIC INJURES WHEAT
Wild onion and wild garlic are different plants but both have the same bad effect when mixed with wheat or when eaten with pasture grasses by cows. Both onion and garlic multiply from underground bulbs so their control is difficult once they become established.

The bulletins are about the same size and weight as a kernel of wheat would be an expensive gift if planted on clean land.

EXPECT DECREASE IN SOYBEAN CROP
The latest crop report predicts the U. S. crop of soy beans will total 188,284,000 bushels, which would be 2.4 percent less than the 1944 total. The report also says the crop is late and is in more danger from frost damage than was last year's plantings.

Ohio is expected to produce 24,990,000 bushels of soybeans in 1945, as compared with a total of 22,457,000 bushels in 1944 and with a ten year average of 9,889,000 bushels. Ohio's crop, along with that in the U. S., must escape serious frost damage to produce the number of bushels estimated.

Want a Trade Auto For A Horse?

"A Horse, My Kingdom for a Horse." With tanks at gasoline stations running low and supplies scarce, you may wish you owned a "horse" instead of your "horseless carriage."

The CIO strike has not closed filling stations here but no one knows how soon they may be.

Some cities are "rationing" gasoline which is in keeping with the CIO New Deal. A local dealer says he will not ration but will sell as long as the pump produces and then he will close down. Rationing he says only makes enemies out of friends.

Another said: "The majority voted for the CIO so 'let 'em walk.' The CIO in some places has refused to permit gasoline to be sold even for school buses.

The situation is a New Deal baby.

This was announced today by Walter Sheets, supervisor for the 1945 farm census in the Fourth Ohio Census District with headquarters at Lebanon.

The total land in farms in the county according to reports was 234,072 acres, as compared with 238,750 acres in 1940, and 242,728 acres in 1935. The average size farm for 1945 in the county was 101 acres, as compared with 110 acres in 1940, and 104 acres in 1935.

Farmers Protest U. S. Fertilizer Competition

Members of the Greene County Farm Forum at a meeting Monday night in Xenia at Geyer's went on record as opposing the Bankhead-Flanagan bill, now in committee in Congress. The bill provides for government building and operation of fertilizer plants over the country and after five years turn the plants over to private industry.

Such a plan would be new competition for co-op Farm Bureau plants now owned by farm interests. The New Deal scheme is Communistic.

COLLEGE NEWS

The Ladies Advisory Board of Cedarville College will hold a Silver Tea at Harriman Hall, Friday, October 5, from 2 to 5 p. m. See the announcement elsewhere in this issue.

President Vayhinger used the story of Jonah as a basis for his sermon at the Annual Convocation service of Cedarville College held at the United Presbyterian Church last Sabbath night. Asserting that much of the beauty of the book has been lost to attention to the insight, experience and faith shown and pointed that these three things are what a college education provides for a student.

Miss Jean Walker of Mason, Ohio, enrolled as a student Monday of this week.

A letter from Congressman Brown says that the record shows that 14 per cent of discharged soldiers are entering college to complete education. The Congressman thinks this is very low but it is above the estimates of educators and others. Some surveys showed only 5 percent as looking forward to further schooling.

Class organizations were effected Tuesday after chapel. Freshmen officers are president, Maxine Parrott, sec-treas., Lois Babby, upper president, Doris Townsley Sanders, vice president, Claire Stormont; sec-treas., Florence Bowers.

President Vayhinger was the guest minister at the Bellbrook Presbyterian church last Sabbath.

Elwood Shaw, 40, overseas for many months, arrived in New York the first of the week. The telephone is a very convenient instrument, is it not? Dap Cupid frequently makes use of it.

The upper classmen entertained the incoming class at an evening of frolic and winners at Bryan State Park last Friday evening.

Wednesday morning the Physical Education class "hiked" to Roadside Park near the Rainbow Inn, west of town for an 8 bells breakfast. The group was chaperoned by the teacher, Mrs. Eloise Kling. The event added to the scarcity of eggs and bacon, but youth will be served, at least in the good old USA.

Gov. Lausche On Newspaper Week

Recognition of the work of American newspapers in maintaining their scrupulous regard for truth, justice and freedom through peace and war periods was urged Wednesday in a proclamation by Gov. Frank Lausche in connection with observance of National Newspaper Week, October 1 through Oct. 8.

Governor Lausche's proclamation follows:

"WHEREAS, the week of October 1 through October 8, 1945, has been set aside as National Newspaper Week in honor of the work of the press and

"WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper to honor a great institution such as newspapers engaged in a most vital work of reporting the daily work of peoples of the world, and

"WHEREAS, through peace and war periods the newspapers have constantly maintained scrupulous regard for truth, justice and freedom and all qualities dear to our hearts;

"NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank J. Lausche, governor of the state of Ohio do hereby proclaim the week of October 1 through October 8, 1945, as National Newspaper Week in Ohio, and urge all citizens of this great state to observe the week appropriately and in knowledge of the splendid contribution to our way of life made by the press."

Asks $11,000 For Personal Service

Minnie Hamilton, Cedarville, has brought suit against the estate of Harry Shull, Elizabeth Enis, Columbus, administratrix, seeking $11,000 for personal services, from October 1, 1906 to July 2, 1945. These services included the general management of his home for which he agreed to pay her a "reasonable" amount and provide for her lifetime. Shull died July 2nd.

Mrs. Hamilton places her services at $20 monthly for 405 months, and $50 a month for sixty months, making a total of $11,100. She charges she presented her claims to the administratrix August but that it was rejected on August 20. D. M. Aultman and George H. Smith, attorneys.

Mrs. Dollie Walker, 90, formerly a resident of this place, died last Thursday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Naylor (formerly Frank Walker), Chicago. The funeral was held Saturday, with burial there.

MCCARTHY TO DIRECT BAND FEST IN XENIA

Tom McCarthy, of W. K. R. C., Cincinnati, who was rated by the Greene County National War Fund Public Relations committee as the most widely listened to news commentator in this area, has been invited, and has accepted the invitation to be present at the Greene County National War Fund Band-Fest Show on Cox Athletic Field at 8 P. M., October 5 in Xenia. He will act as master of ceremonies for the 11 bands that will participate. "It's a beautiful day here in Cincinnati," the Irish commentator usually remarks, "the basin fog may be engulfing the whole area."

Then he promises his hearers he will "shimmy" up the flag-pole to get a temperature reading for the day. He will donate his usual appearance fee to the Greene County National War Fund as the first contribution. The various bands of the county are busy practicing on their stunts. The mass county band will be directed by the leader of the 661st Army Air Force Band of Patterson Field. The bands are meeting in the Field House at 7:00 P. M. for mass rehearsal just preceding the band show. Special lighting effects will be used on the bands and a sound system will carry the program over the field. At the close of the band show, festivities will move to the Xenia Central High Gym where a free dance for young and old will be held. Kenny Little and his band providing the music. The Victory dance will get under way at 9:30 p. m. Open house will be held at the Xenia A. W. S. U. S. O. Service Club and also at the East Side Club.

The "kick-off" dinner for the workers will be held at the Xenia Masonic Temple, Monday evening, Oct. 7 at 7 p. m. A friend of the cause who has requested that his name be withheld is providing the chicken dinner for the affair to which every worker in Greene county has been invited to attend. As special guests of honor for the dinner, every gold star mother of the county has been invited to attend. Here the workers will be given their assignments and supplies for the campaign which opens Oct. 9 and closes on October 23. The goal is for $30,000 in this county.

Gov. Cox Declines Lausche Appointment

Gov. Lausche has something in his gift basket he has not been able to give away—appointment of a Democratic Senator to succeed Sen. H. H. Burton, resigned. The Governor made a trip to Dayton to interest James M. Cox but he declined. Former Senator Robert Bulkley, Cleveland, says he is not interested. Louis Brownfield, the well known farm writer and author, says he has no time for the place. The image of John W. Bricker hovers over the Democratic camp—except for a few that care little about punishment.

$10-A-DAY STRIKERS: SERVICE MEN $17.50 MONTHLY

The nation is about to reap the harvest of what has been sown in the past by one swallowed by the grave. Promises made as reckless as dollars from the income taxpayer's pocket thrown to the high winds in cost-plus war contracts. Strikes! Strikes! Everywhere in most all trades. Shorter hours and higher pay. Those that argue New Deal inflation against higher prices for farm products have no fear of that economic fever injuring the economy of the nation even for higher wages and less work.

As inconsistent as the above may be it does not compare with the Truman proposal of $25 weekly for 26 weeks to do nothing. That of course is not inflation from the New Deal view of a safe economy. With several hundred thousand strikers leaving their dollar an hour jobs on demand of still higher pay, that does not lead to inflation but the CIO abhors the thought of even ten cents a hundred more for live pork or the thin dime more for a dozen eggs. The New Dealers have forgotten even the campaign for world peace all because the CIO demands higher wages made on a previous promise of the demagogue that was as reckless with promises for this and that at home as he was around the world.

The same crowd demanding higher wages are the ones who campaign that the government should keep our soldier boys in foreign lands, fearing they will demand their old jobs back to displace the common slackers that hid behind the so-called war contract. The CIO and New Dealers have been preaching the doctrine of keeping several million of these boys in the army around the world, not for world security but to keep them from taking jobs that are sure to fall in the veteran's lap as soon as he returns. A foreman in a Dayton plant informs the writer that 65 percent of the jobs in his department will be turned over to returning veterans. This foreman served abroad in the hottest fighting in France in World War I. He says the CIO is to have no club over his company when it comes to giving jobs to the veterans.

The American farmer has a place in this picture as to higher wages for factory workers now in the $10 a day class and out on a strike. Threats have been made by the CIO that they can break General Motors and manufacturers of all kinds of farm implements. The oil strike may retard wheat seeding and corn picking and barley sowing. Lumber is scarce and needed for repairs on the farm yet strikers have closed down hundreds of plants over the nation. Higher wages for industrial products to be used on the farm means higher prices to be paid out of farm income received under OPA ceiling prices. Not a spokesman from the Truman administration has spoken one word in defense of the farmer as a hog-tied victim under the New Deal-CIO economic plan.

The campaign being waged to keep our boys scattered all over the world is not for military purposes but to keep away the greatest influence that was ever mustered before a presidential election. There is but one thing parents can do in this respect and that is continue to bombard members of congress with your letters demanding that all the boys that have served abroad be returned home at once. Then demand that those who remained at home to draw the high wages be drafted to fill the vacancies, not rob the schools and colleges of the teen-agers that cannot be regarded as slackers. Demand that the administration put the thousands of Democratic clerks of draft age in uniform. Make your letters plain that all this must be done before the next presidential election. If you are a New Dealer and have a son in service in camp or abroad, write the President your views on keeping the boys in service. We are sure Mr. Truman would like to know how his followers feel about keeping the boys in uniform abroad.

Each and every farmer should make it his business to write to President Truman and give your views on the strike situation as it will affect your pocketbook on what you have to purchase and yet be compelled under government edict to take prewar low prices for all crops and livestock. The CIO has pushed the administration out in front on the wage issue. It is a challenge to the increased wages that not only mean higher prices for all the farmer purchases but it is unfair to hold our boys abroad for the $17.50 a month, after deductions are taken out, and yet have thousands demanding more than war time wages right at a time when all farm prices can go to a new low. If the CIO can force the administration to carry their banner in this fight, your guaranteed price will become a myth.

Congress so far has given the Truman $25 a week for 26 weeks for doing nothing a setback. Democrats and Republicans joined this week in laying the plan "on ice". Of course few there are that believed Mr. Truman wanted anything more than the publicity for political effect to please the CIO. He probably told Senate leaders—I will urge passage of the measure, but you fellows do as you please. And they did and from outward appearance no one is angry except the "IWW", the "I won't Work" yelpers.

The Herald referred to a similar case here some days back when a farmer wanted help and the loafer politely informed him he was waiting on his compensation check of $25 weekly for 26 weeks. He has a long wait before him after results in Congress this week.

A plain case of the pay for no work has turned up in Cincinnati. The city needs men for highway and other work about the parks before winter. The U. S. Employment agency sent some 65 applicants for work to the city and but 22 of them showed up. Most of the 22 only worked a day or so or refused to work on the job and had to be fired. The CIO crowd has started a campaign against the Service Director because he made public the record of men refusing to take employment when it was offered.

Another feature of the "pay for no work plan" is a suit in one of the Ohio courts whereby a union member refused to take a job because it was not under union control. The court we understand has held that a job is a job, union or non union and under the compensation law the applicant must take what is offered. Of course a professional plumber will not be given a watch-maker's job in a watch factory but a job is a job when one is out of employment. A large percent of 3,000 applicants in Cincinnati did not want a job. They wanted the $25 a week and no work. So does everybody for that matter. Mr. Truman may have picked a rotten egg from the Roosevelt nest.

Things are not moving so well at the big five ministers' conference over in London. As usual Russia is the bear in the arguments over world diplomacy and has the British lion with its back to the wall. As usual Uncle Sam is asked by England to give her moral support in holding down Stalin in European affairs. The position little Joe takes that his armies took most of the German punishment and dear old FDR promised them everything to get into the fight. Double dealing is not the Russian way where they make demands first and stand until they get what they want.

Ever give consideration as you get an earful of certain broadcasts when foreign affairs are under discussion?

Did you ever notice the attitude of some broadcasters with European names far from being even Teutonic? The broadcasts this past week have been interesting. One Sunday night commentator who thinks he formulates foreign policy held Gen. MacArthur up by the ears and cuffed him right and left for five minutes. Later on the program he was soothing the General's brow. Monday morning at an early hour a broadcaster applied the heat to MacArthur for not following Dean Acheson of the State Department. The broadcaster has a Russian name and his blood may be thicker for his native country, or family trace than for America. He bounces MacArthur for not wanting two or three million of your sons kept in the army in Japan instead of his estimated 200,000. Another Sunday night broadcaster who wore a navy uniform for social standing on orders from the White House before Truman let Hyde Park contingent get back to the native haunts. This broadcaster is of the European trend and his hand lotion is not 100 percent American. He is best known as the bedroom key holder on high society scandal. It is easily to see why the Communists, the European rabble would tie MacArthur's hands. Not one of them would have your son liberated from the army even though the war has been won. It is part of the New Deal strategy to keep the boys "over there" to please the CIO Communist leaders and help make possible the RooseveltWallace 00,000,000 million jobs. Parents who have boys abroad and those who must see their 18-year-olds shipped abroad can charge the situation up to the New Dealers.

The New Dealers fearing exposure of the Roosevelt family financial affairs would hark back to the grave, immediately put a check on further investigation of not only Elliott's dealings and his income tax returns, but the part FDR had during his last year or two. What stinks about the whole matter is that John Hartford gets a credit for loss of $196,000 while Elliott hides behind a congressional claim of "smearing the dead", if such were possible. The Democrats hate to admit the scandal existed and they have little to say about the FDR order forbidding anyone taking a peep at the income tax returns of any member of his family. Some day the whole affair will be given the public. Meantime the Democrats have another dead cat to remove from the legislative halls in the form of the Pearl Harbor investigation as to who was and was not guilty.

Congressman Clarence J. Brown in his weekly letter in this issue refers to rules governing the drafting of boys 18 yet in school. The Herald is ready to report a case from this school district where a high school student was ordered out of school on orders of the draft board, no doubt conforming to the crack-pot rules laid down in Washington. The boy dropped out of school orders because he was exempted for farm work, not to go to school. Who could think of an order like that coming from any set that would boast of being civilized? Mr. Brown says the order was revoked in Governor Lausche to fill the vacancy of thousands of parents was stirred.

James M. Cox, former governor and one-time presidential nominee with the late FDR on the League of Nations issue, has been offered an appointment as U. S. Senator from Ohio by Governor Lausche to fill the vacancy created by Sen. H. H. Burton being named as an associate justice of the Supreme Court, has declined the offer. At this time Gov. Lausche has not been able to get an outstanding Democrat to accept the short term order. Who ever it is if he chooses to run for election must face John W. Bricker, who is certain to be the Republican primary choice and no doubt without opposition in his primary. It is no wonder prominent Democrats hold back at this time. New Dealism, price ceilings under OPA, drafting 18 year olds for gunfodder, CIO strikes and Roosevelt scandals make the No. 1 Democrat hesitate about risking a small fortune and popularity to become a pall-bearer of a lost cause.

Throughout the ages, dancing has steadfastly held its place as a worthwhile and artistic accomplishment and the ability to dance and to dance well has become one of the necessary prerequisites to a social education. If you learn to dance here you will dance well, for under their tutelage you quickly master the most intricate steps and come to the realization of the rhythm, beauty and "joie de vivre" of the dance.

Along with plans for your children's education throughout the current season, why not add a bright spot to it by including courses in different types of dancing? A course in baton twirling will add a new vitality to their education toward precision and correct balance. These will help to keep them interested in their studies and they will appreciate your thoughtfulness in later years.

The planting should be made after the fall rains have made the soil moist and workable. Late October or early November is the best period. Plants should have matured their current season growth and be approaching dormant condition.

More farmers will want telephone service

Surveys indicate that in the rural areas served by the Ohio Bell, demands for telephone service in the months just ahead will be the greatest in our history. We are glad that again we are able to resume our development program halted in 1942. We will have at our disposal new construction methods, far-reaching developments in communications and new materials.

The program for Ohio Bell rural areas calls for an expenditure of around $6,500,000 spread over several years. Among other things, we will build 6,700 additional miles of rural pole line. This will enable us to serve 30,000 new rural users.

With materials again available and our fighting men returning, we are determined that every resident in Ohio Bell territory who wants telephone service will be able to get it at the lowest possible cost.

THE ISRAELITES IN A FOREIGN LAND

LESSON TEXT—Genesis 47:1-12. GOLDEN TEXT—Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.—Psalm 90:1.

Preparation of a great nation takes time. God wanted Israel to have opportunity to develop into a family to a nation so He arranged for them to have a place of refuge and of abundant provision while they grew. He had already made ready for them by sending Joseph into Egypt, and now the whole family of Jacob moved down.

Jacob's fears had been overcome by the vision of God (Gen. 46:1-4), in which he was assured that this was the outworking of God's purpose to make of him a "great nation." The promises to him and his forefathers were now in process of fulfillment. The man who believes God is privileged to see Him work. We find the family of Jacob in Egypt, but separated (vv. 1-6).

As he presented the representatives of his brethren to Pharaoh, Joseph made known that he had settled them in the land of Goshen, a favored spot well suited to their life as shepherds.

It is worthy of observation that while they were now in Egypt there was no thought of mingling with the Egyptians. They were to be a separated people living in a strange land. Only thus could the purity of the nation be maintained and a people suited for God's service be kept and made ready.

The application to the life of the Christian lies right at hand. In Scripture Egypt is a type of the world, where worldly appetites are satisfied and where strange gods are worshiped. The Christian is to "come out from among them" and to be separate (II Cor. 6:14-18).

The tendency in our time is to minimize the importance of separation from worldliness and to regard those who preach and practice it as being narrow and old-fashioned. Say what you will, it is a fact that worldliness has robbed the Church of its spiritual power and of its real testimony for Christ.

As a matter of fact, the Christian is not narrow. He is as broad as the counsel of God, and the worldling who boasts of his broad-mindedness has often mistaken superficial fitness for real broadness.

II. Blessed, but Blessing (vv. 7-10). Jacob and his family received many mercies at the hands of Pharaoh and his people, but they were not in the land just to be blessed but also to bring a blessing. The patriarch Jacob was brought by Joseph into the presence of Pharaoh. That noble son was not ashamed to bring his aged Hebrew father into the presence of the king. There he gave witness concerning his life. But he did something else—he blessed Pharaoh.

That scene speaks volumes to us as Christians. We are not of the world but we are in the world (John 17:15-17). We are to be a separated people for the glory of God, but that does not mean that we are not to bring blessing to those round about us. We are in the world not just to enjoy ourselves, but to make Christ known to others—to touch lives that are needy and saddened and sin-sick.

It is also of interest that the blessing of Jacob was given to the man on the throne. We are apt to think of the poor and the underprivileged as needing the gospel and forget that the rich man in the house on the hill may be the most spiritually hungry in town.

III. Preserved, but Preparing (vv. 11, 12). God sent His chosen people down into Egypt that they might not perish in the famine. He wanted them kept and nourished while they grew into the great people which He ultimately led out toward the Promised Land.

That was important, for had they not been preserved the promise of God could not have been fulfilled. But all the time they were being prepared for the great day of deliverance and blessing which was to come.

Applying the truth once again to the Christian believer, it is not enough just to be safe in Christ. That is precious but it is not enough; there must be growth in grace.

Some Christians are saved and kept all right, but it is just a matter of being "preserved" and put on a shelf. They are of no earthly use unless it is to be exhibited, and that kind of a Christian is not really worth showing off.

Then, too, some of the saints are preserved but not in sweetness. They are evidently preserved by pickling, sour, unpleasant people sometimes called "vinegar saints." God deliver us from that kind of preservation! May we be kept in such a way that we are ready to witness for God!

Veterans Bill of Rights

It is virtually certain that this session of the congress will liberalize many provisions of the G. I. Bill of Rights, particularly since President Truman and the Veterans administration have now given added impetus to needed clarification and liberalization.

In his message to the congress, the President urged that prompt consideration be given for more liberal hospitalization and veterans care, more vocational training under the vocational rehabilitation act and to education and training under the serviceman's readjustment act (G. I. bill). The President further urged more specific language for re-employment of veterans under the selective service act, so that there be no doubt about the right of a veteran to get back his old job should he desire it.

The Veterans administration itself will take the lead and spearhead the fight for these clarifying and liberalizing amendments and the administration will have the backing of such organizations as the American Bar association, the American Institute of Banking, the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

At this time 22,349 veterans, out of more than two million demobilized thus far, are taking advantage of the education features of the bill of rights. Some of the proposed amendments would include "adequate subsistence and travel allowances for veterans taking intensive refresher courses away from home; permit instruction by correspondence, particularly from approved educational institutions which have not hitherto conducted correspondence courses."

Questions and Answers

Q—My husband was given an honorable medical discharge March 9, 1943. At that time he did not receive a discharge booklet. Where can he obtain one?
Mrs. R. E. Marshalltown, Iowa.

A—At any army separation center, probably at your local draft board, or one may be purchased at almost any army store.

Q—Has an army officer the right to get off the allotment to his wife and child without any reason? Has he no obligation to meet concerning his family?
Wife, Stillacoom, Wash.

A—Yes, he has the right to discontinue his allotment. He has the same obligations concerning his family as any other honorable husband.

Q—I am making an application for a one-ton truck. I have a farm of 200 acres and need a truck very much. I am an honorably discharged soldier, with two years service. I would like to get a government-owned truck if possible. J. F., Schneecady, N. Y.

A—If you are referring to a surplus war property truck, would suggest that you contact your local AAA county committee or your county agent for information where these surplus trucks are available from a bona fide dealer in your community. You are entitled to an A-1 priority without red tape if there are surplus war trucks for sale at any of your local dealers.

Q—I want to know if a man that has been in the navy 16 months, is 26 years old and has a wife and two children, will get a discharge soon? Wife, Vida, Okla.

A—Not necessarily. The navy man will be subject to the discharge system of rating adopted by the navy.

Q—I am a World War I veteran and have a job. Will I have to give up my job for a veteran of World War II? Does a veteran of World War I have as much right as a World War II veteran? W. L., Mora, Minn.

A—If you are holding a job now which was given up by a veteran of this war, then the honorably discharged veteran of World War II has a right to that job back under the provisions of the selective service act. A veteran of World War I has all the rights of a citizen of the U. S. A. and as much right as a veteran of this war except for the express benefits enacted for veterans of World War II.

Q—A serviceman owed his father some money before he entered the service. Then the father became suddenly ill and was unable to work. The serviceman then provided the father a family allowance from the government. Should the serviceman get credit on what he owed his father for the amount the government sent? Reader, Haydon, Colo.

A—That question obviously is a matter for private settlement between the serviceman and his father.
